Present: Ms. Neha Ahuja for the plaintiff.

+Transfer Pet. No. 17/2005

This application is filed by the applicant/plaintiff under Section 24(5) read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure (in short 'CPC') for transfer of Suit No.184/2004 pending in the Court of Mr. R.P. Pandey, ADJ, Delhi to this Court. Neither reply to this application is filed nor anybody is present on behalf of the defendant.

It may be noted that the aforesaid suit was filed int his Court which was registered as Suit No.1095/2000. However, after increasing the pecuniary jurisdiction, this suit was directed to be transferred to the District Court whereupon it was assigned to the aforesaid Court and given the number 184/2004. Plaintiff moved application under Order VI Rule 17 CPC seeking amendment and enhancing the value of the suit to Rs.20,00,800/- which application was allowed vide order dated 26th April 2005. The consequence of this amendment would be that it is the High Court which will have pecuniary jurisdiction, now, to maintain this suit. In fact, even this application is not required to be filed as after allowing the amendment the learned ADJ should have sent the said suit to this Court. Be as it may, in view of the aforesaid amendment as the suit is now to be tried by this Court, it is directed that that suit shall
